MORE THAN JUST A NEW SKIRTING

We have put into this project
all of our 25 years' experience as a FLOOR EXPERTS.

We have combined our material knowledge and designing skills. VIGO it is not just another new shape of skirting, it is a totally new approach to product design where starting point were both the consumer and the installer needs.

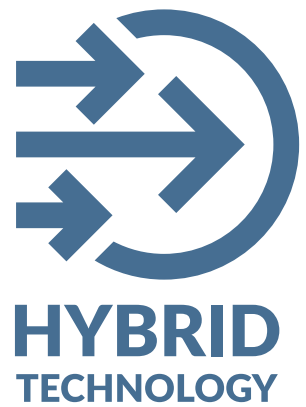

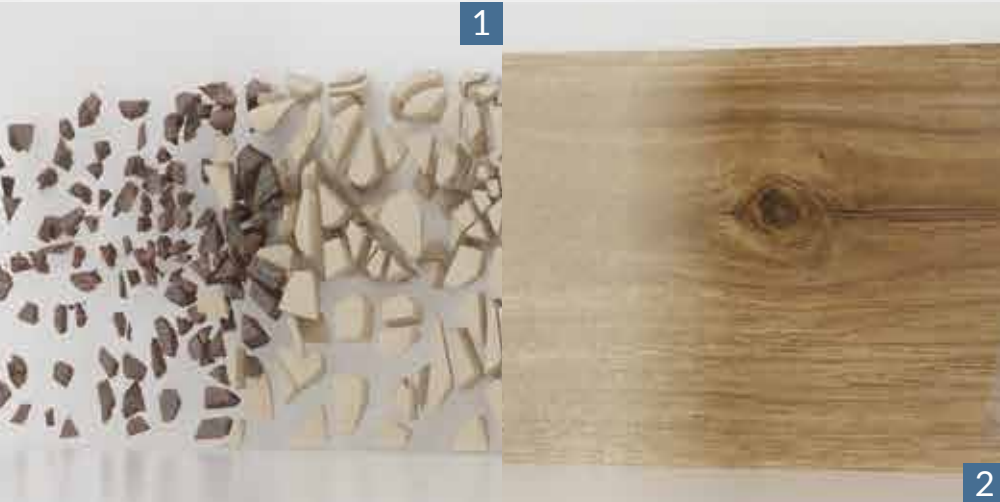

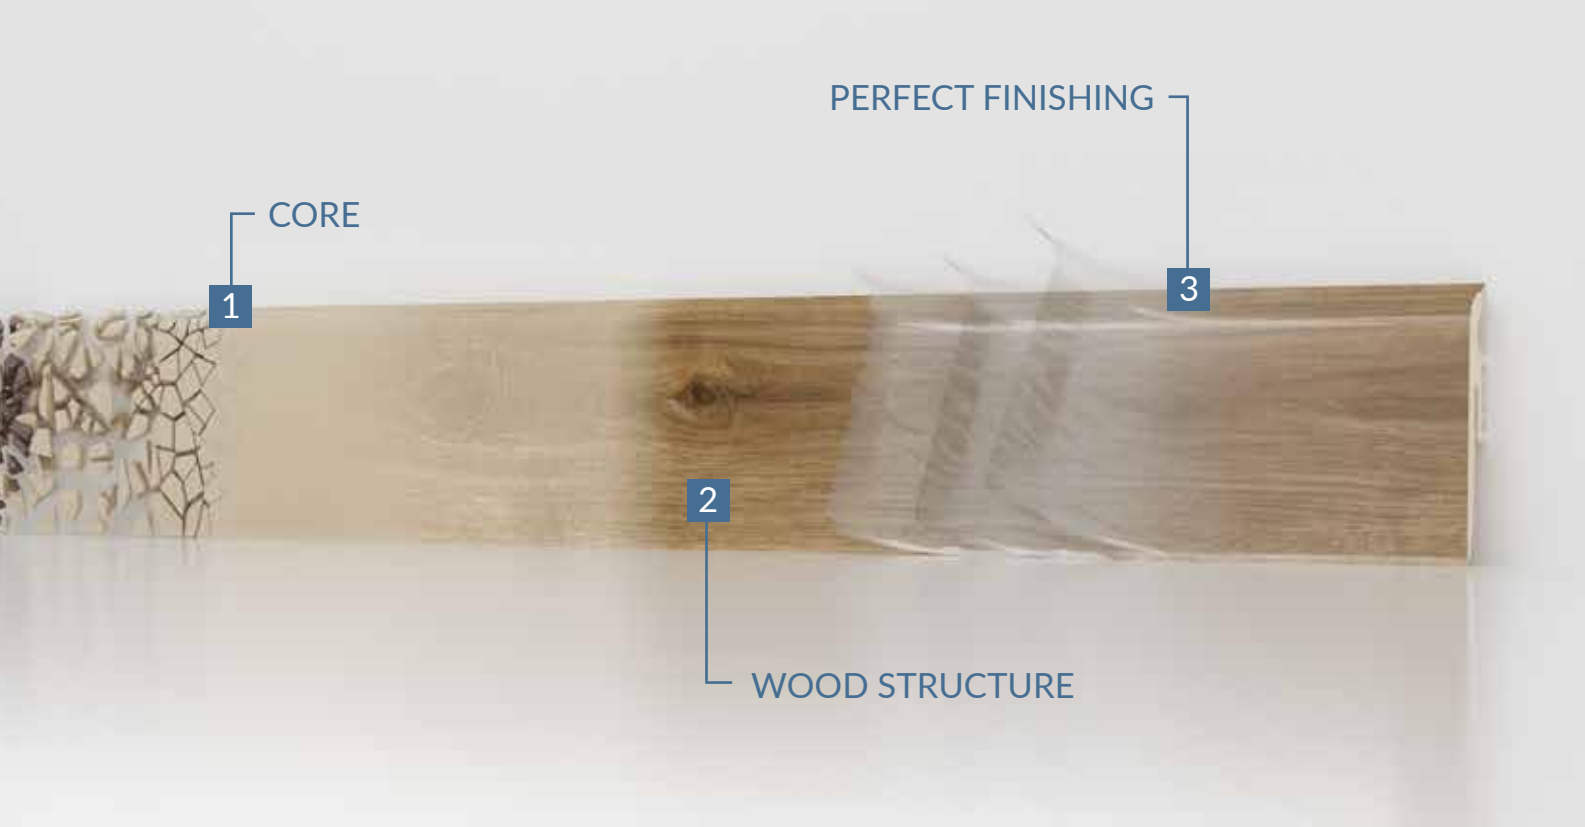

When starting a new project, we set a goal to combine design of a lacquered MDF skirting with ease of assembly and user-friendliness of polymer skirtings. That's why the best designers and engineers were engaged to work together in the project.

Its design combines elegant slim shape and ideal proportions. Thanks to totally new, multi-step process of production we get a noble matt surface. We have combined these features with easy click and glue assembly, a new approach to accessories and rubber edges that eliminate time-consuming finishing with acrylic.

In addition, the usable features, such as water resistance, increased impact and scratch resistance was a must.
